DESCRIPTION
This course offers a comprehensive survey of major translation theories, such as the linguistic, functional, communicative, cultural-literary and philosophical translation theories. The focus will be on the history, approaches and main theses of each theory. The purpose of the course is to provide students with a theoretical and methodological base for evaluating and studying translation.

COURSE OVERVIEW
In the course, students are engaged in weekly discussions on critical readings in translation studies, from which they explore theoretical concepts and research paradigms in the discipline. Case studies in translation history are employed to test and explain the theories, and this will not only deepen their understanding of the theories but also enrich the knowledge of translation history of the students.

LEARNING OUTCOMES
Expected learning outcomes

After completing the course, students are expected to:
- develop an understanding of the major issues in translation studies
- identify and be acquainted with the major schools of contemporary translation theories
- acquire theoretical and methodological approaches for evaluating and studying translated texts
- be prepared for further studies and academic research

Implication for learning activities
The lectures given by the teacher will provide a strong base for understanding the major theories of translation studies and the important phenomena in modern Chinese history. The Forum Discussion provides an unlimited space for exchanging views and ideas. Students will gain ample experience in serious academic discussion.

Implication for assessment
Continuous assessment of their performance over Forum Discussion will encourage the students to participate in active discussions of key issues in translation studies. This is a very effective way to help students develop their critical thinking. The term paper will tell clearly the knowledge acquired by the students in the course.

COURSE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Course announcements and materials will be posted on CU eLearning System and distributed in class.

Policy on Absenteeism
In respect of individual courses, a student who, without permission to take leave, has been absent for a continuous period exceeding 4 weeks shall, subject to the Department Board’s approval, be given Grade F for the course(s) concerned.

Policy on Penalties for Late Submission of Written Work
Late submission of written work 1-7 days: Minus ONE Sub-grade.
Late submission of written work beyond 7 days: The work will be given a failure grade.

ACADEMIC HONESTY AND PLAGIARISM

Attention is drawn to University policy and regulations on honesty in academic work, and to the disciplinary guidelines and procedures applicable to breaches of such policy and regulations. Details may be found at http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/policy/academichonesty/.

With each assignment, students will be required to submit a signed declaration that they are aware of these policies, regulations, guidelines and procedures. In the case of group projects, all students of the same group should be asked to sign the declaration, each of whom is responsible should there be any plagiarized contents in the group project, irrespective of whether he/she has signed the declaration and whether he/she has contributed directly or indirectly to the plagiarized contents.

For assignments in the form of a computer-generated document that is principally text-based and submitted via VeriGuide, the statement, in the form of a receipt, will be issued by the system upon students' uploading of the soft copy of the assignment. Assignments without the properly signed declaration will not be graded by teachers. Only the final version of the assignment should be submitted via VeriGuide.

The submission of a piece of work, or a part of a piece of work, for more than one purpose (e.g. to satisfy the requirements in two different courses) without declaration to this effect shall be regarded as having committed undeclared multiple submission. It is common and acceptable to reuse a turn of phrase or a sentence or two from one’s own work; but wholesale reuse is problematic. In any case, agreement from the course teacher(s) concerned should be obtained prior to the submission of the piece of work.
