The course teaches consecutive interpreting at the introductory level. Students will gain general conceptual knowledge about the process and practice of consecutive interpreting. They will be trained in the basic skills of consecutive interpreting, including voice and speech skills, active listening, memory, re-presentation of messages, short consecutive interpreting without notes, note-taking and short interpreting with notes. Students will also be guided to develop deliberate practice habits, including reflection, goal-setting, peer-feedback and journaling.

The language combination of the course is Putonghua and English. Classes are conducted in the multimedia classroom.

Pre-requisites/Course Exclusions
Not for students who have taken TRAN6205 Consecutive Interpreting I: C/E.

Course Overview
This course lays the foundation of consecutive interpreting. The interpreting process is decomposed into separate tasks, giving students the chance to gradually add and integrate tasks as they build up their capacity to perform. By the end of the course, student should have a clear conceptual understanding of CI and hands-on experience, enabling them to continue to the next level of learning and skill development.

Learning Outcomes
- Understand the common applications of consecutive interpreting;
- Understand the fundamental concepts and process of consecutive interpreting;
- Acquire basic skills for consecutive interpreting such as active listening, paraphrasing, note-taking and glossary building;
- Do consecutive interpreting of speeches of general topics between Putonghua and English at short intervals.
Implication for learning activities

- Learn basic concepts from teacher’s lectures;
- Guided practice in class and learning from teacher’s feedback
- Peer learning from other students’ performance and feedback
- Outside class practice: self-practice, practice with peers
- Reading to enhance theoretical knowledge of consecutive interpreting
- Reading to enhance general knowledge

Implication for assessment:
As a general rule, students will be assessed on a continuous basis. They are expected to:
- Participate in class activities;
- Hand in assignments on time;
- Engage actively in collaborative learning activities;
- Perform to the best of their ability in tests.

COURSE ANNOUNCEMENTS

Course announcements and materials will be posted on CU eLearning System / distributed in class

Policy on Absenteeism

In respect of individual courses, a student who, without permission to take leave, has been absent for a continuous period exceeding 4 weeks shall, subject to the Department Board’s approval, be given Grade F for the course(s) concerned.

Policy on Penalties for Late Submission of Written Work

Late submission of written work 1-7 days: Minus ONE Sub-grade.
Late submission of written work beyond 7 days: The work will not be graded and Grade F be given.

ACADEMIC HONESTY AND PLAGIARISM

Attention is drawn to University policy and regulations on honesty in academic work, and to the disciplinary guidelines and procedures applicable to breaches of such policy and regulations. Details may be found at http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/policy/academichonesty/.

With each assignment, students will be required to submit a signed declaration that they are aware of these policies, regulations, guidelines and procedures. In the case of group projects, all students of the same group should be asked to sign the declaration, each of whom is responsible should there be any plagiarized contents in the group project, irrespective of whether he/she has signed the declaration and whether he/she has contributed directly or indirectly to the plagiarized contents.
For assignments in the form of a computer-generated document that is principally text-based and submitted via VeriGuide, the statement, in the form of a receipt, will be issued by the system upon students' uploading of the soft copy of the assignment. Assignments without the properly signed declaration will not be graded by teachers. Only the final version of the assignment should be submitted via VeriGuide.

The submission of a piece of work, or a part of a piece of work, for more than one purpose (e.g. to satisfy the requirements in two different courses) without declaration to this effect shall be regarded as having committed undeclared multiple submission. It is common and acceptable to reuse a turn of phrase or a sentence or two from one’s own work; but wholesale reuse is problematic. In any case, agreement from the course teacher(s) concerned should be obtained prior to the submission of the piece of work.
